Hello Daniel,

Both payments with Paypal and Wells Fargo transfer are already sent. See attached files. When I added your email in Wise it detected that you also have a Wise account, but I sent the payment to Wells Fargo as you indicated in your email. If for future payments you prefer to receive on Wise let me know.

Let me know when is better for a meeting with my developer since he will be in charge of the tweak and configuration of the system specially for the advertisement configuration that I remember it was little tricky.

Hello,

Platform will be <https://native.tube> but since it will have several services let's deploy under <https://video.native.tube> let me know the IP address to redirect subdomain. We will start working on the main domain website this weekend.

Premium ones are missing. We agreed to have them right? Because also I still should have the license for them from last time because es-tv people did not pay me and I already paid the plugins and when the project was cancelled we agreed to keep the licensing. See attached docs.

Oh sorry my bad, most of them are there yes, I thought they weren't because I started searching for the FTP and S3 storage ones, after reviewing there is also missing OTP Login and also the blackblaze storage, YPT storage and the LDAP (this will not be used at all so no need); but the storage ones and the OTP are going to be needed unless those are on a different place.

OTP Login can be added (I will add later)

LDAP will be useless for you

the storage ones will only give you troubles and conflicts because you will use the CDN storage

Yes LDAP is useless. And regarding the storage ones can you elaborate? Because if we upload a lot of videos and server runs out of storage? I thought CDN was only for faster viewing of videos for viewers. Sorry for my confusion. Maybe we can talk about this next week to make sure how we calculate the subscription prices for the content creators.

Thanks and apologies for my misunderstanding.

Hi

You will use the CDN + the CDN storage (2cents/GB/Month)

if you enable any other storage plugin it will probably crash and your videos will stop to play.
that is why I did not include any other storage plugin

Best Regards
